Experience Ala Kukui!

Noenoe Nights Wahine Getaway

February 7 | May 8 | September 25 | November 13

Noenoe Ua Kea is the name of the light misty rain unique to Hāna that regenerates the areal surrounding Ka'uiki. Noenoe Nights was created to celebrate wahine and their powerful roles in our community and 'ohana. Enjoy an evening of crafting, pupu and refreshment.

Package includes:

- Two Night Stay (2 Guests)
 - Catered Breakfast
 - Local Artisanal Welcome Gift, and Two Tickets to Noenoe Nights

Taro Festival April 25

Hāna's signature event, the East Maui Taro Festival, highlights and celebrates kalo, a staple food of the Hawaiian diet, and elder brother of Hawaiian people. Bring the whole 'ohana, work crew or close group of friends and enjoy a full day of hula, music, food, crafts, and a weekend immersed in Hāna.

Package includes:

- Three Night Stay, with Fourth Night Complimentary (10-18 Guests)
 - Catered Breakfast
 - Local Artisanal Welcome Basket, and Event Itinerary

Rest, Rejuvenate & Recover September 12

Whether you are on a 9-man crew, a support van or just a Hāna relay enthusiast, enjoy a relaxing relay finish at Ala Kukui. This 52-mile race along East Maui's breathtaking landscape is a definite bucket lister.

Package includes:

- Three Night Stay, with Fourth Night Complimentary (10-18 Guests)
 - A Specially Crafted Race Recovery Basket, and on-site Massage Therapies

Celebrate Aloha, Hāna Style October (tba)

Celebrate Hāna's culture and traditions during Aloha Week, or Festivals of Aloha. The week-long festivities begins with a parade of floats and pā'ū riders, and ends with a Hō'ike Night of hula, music, food, and vendors.

Package includes:

- Two Night Stay, with Third Night Complimentary (8 Guests)
 - Local Artisanal Welcome Basket, Itinerary of Festivities, and Festival Ribbons

Lonoikamakahiki November 6

Makahiki is a time when practitioners of this 'āina (land) observe the changes in their environment, recognize the abundance of the past year, and ask for reassurance of next year's bounty. Be a part of the Hāna's Makahiki opening ceremony, a day filled with chant, ceremonial foods, and makahiki games.

Package includes:

- Three Night Stay (8 Guests)
- Invitation to Hāna's Mākahiki Opening Ceremony
- Catered Dinner, and Celestial Talk Story with Hokule'a Voyager Nakua Konohia-Lind
